

Volunteer Eligibility

Deans from AACSB accredited schools are eligible to serve on peer review teams and as mentors. Associate Deans, or similar positions, from AACSB accredited schools may be eligible to serve as mentors if the following requirements are met: attend training, submit a letter of endorsement from their dean, and possess the appropriate knowledge of and experience with the accreditation process.

Deans may continue to be assigned to peer review teams for three years after leaving their position. Deans and associate deans may continue to be assigned as mentors for five years after leaving their position. Exceptions require the approval of the Chief Accreditation Officer and the Senior Vice President, Accreditation and Member Services.
