

AACSB International Member Referral Program

AACSB invites all members to refer partner and peer institutions to join as members of AACSB, solidifying their commitment to quality improvement.

Access to an elite network of global business schools is a key benefit of membership with AACSB International. Member referrals aid the association in identifying leading business schools that strengthen and add value to the network, as well as elevate the global brand of AACSB membership. AACSB invites all members to become AACSB Network Leaders today by encouraging your peer institutions to Be AACSB.

Please submit completed form to membership@aacsb.edu. Form must be submitted by the referring member and the nominated member must be in copy.

Nominated Institution Information

Institution Name _____

Official Representative* – In accordance with AACSB International bylaws and policy, an institution's official representative must be the dean or head of the business unit REQUIRED

Prefix First Name Surname/Family Name Middle Name

Position/Title Business School/Unit Name

Direct Telephone Email Address

Additional Contact – i.e. Official Representative Support Staff; Official Designee as appointed by the Official Representative.

If more space is required, additional contacts may be provided within the email submission of this form

Prefix First Name Surname/Family Name Middle Name

Position/Title Business School/Unit Name

Direct Telephone Email Address

Nomination statement - brief statement of support for this nomination

Referring Member Information

Name: _____

Title: _____

Institution: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

My signature below indicates official nomination of the above referenced institution for membership with AACSB International. I understand that the nominated institution must follow formal application procedures and be granted membership in order for me to be eligible for the member referral program incentives. I further understand that six month term limits apply* in order to be eligible and also to utilize member referral program incentives. (please reference Program Incentive Information for term details).*

Signature

Date

Member Referral Program Submission and Incentive Information

Please visit the AACSB International website for full program incentive details.

Referral Submission

Submit completed form to membership@aacsb.edu. Form must be submitted by the referring member and the nominated member must be in copy.

Nominated members must meet AACSB membership requirements. Member referral incentives are contingent upon the applicant receiving final membership approval from AACSB International.

- Membership requirements:
 - Prospective educational members must be authorized to grant degrees by the ministry of education or appropriate governing body within their respective country.
 - Prospective members must deliver at least one bachelors, masters, and/or doctorate degree in business, management, or accounting independently through their institution and not in partnership with another institution.

Program Incentive Information

Referring Member: If the nominated institution applies for and is granted membership with AACSB, the referring member will be contacted within 30 business days to elect their preferred member referral incentives.

Nominated Prospective Member: This completed nomination form must accompany your AACSB membership application in order to be eligible to receive the new member referral incentive(s). Your incentive(s) will be applied pending final approval and activation of your membership.

Incentive Terms:

The nominated member must apply for membership no more than 6 months from the nomination submission date in order for both the referring and nominated institutions to be eligible for the member referral incentives. Exceptions may be granted at the discretion of the AACSB International membership department. Upon membership approval, both the referring and nominated member have up to 6 months to utilize member referral incentives. Referral incentives are subject to availability pending the number of approved nominations. AACSB reserves the right to provide alternate referral incentives as required to meet program demands.