

Glenn Andrew Growe

1018 Allegan St.
Saugatuck, MI 49453
(269) 857-4680

email: groweg0727@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE:

Obtain an academic position in accounting enabling the pursuit of my teaching and research interests.

EDUCATION:

2011	University of Florida Postdoctoral Bridge to Business Program Accounting and Finance Track (Academically Qualified for AACSB) Completion – July, 2011
2003-05	Grand Valley State University Master of Science in Accounting
2001-03	Grand Valley State University Masters of Business Administration
1997-97	Grand Valley State University Computer Information Systems, M.S.
1971-1975	Loyola University Psychology, M.A., Ph.D.
1967-1971	University of Chicago Psychology, B.A.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE :

2008 - present	Adjunct Instructor, Department of Accounting, Aquinas College. Teaching Cost Accounting.
2005 - present	Adjunct Instructor, Department of Accounting, Hope College. I taught Principles of Financial Accounting, Managerial Accounting, Financial Statement Analysis and Cost Accounting.
2009	Tax Preparer, H&R Block

Resume: Glenn Andrew Growe

- 2004 - 2006 Adjunct Instructor, Department of Accounting
Grand Valley State University. I teach
Principles of Financial Accounting, Financial Accounting Applications, and Managerial Accounting.
- 1999-2003 Visiting Lecturer, Department of Computer Science
and Information Systems, Grand Valley State University. I have taught sections of Introduction to Computers, Introduction to Software Engineering and Visual Basic
- 2002 Triant Technologies, Consultant on successful data mining project to automatically classify semiconductor equipment faults by cause from equipment sensor readings.
- 1975 – 1997 Clinical Psychologist, private practice
Publications and references available on request.

PUBLICATIONS:

Cannon, D. and Grove, G. (2004) Sarbanes-Oxley compliance: Will IT sabotage your efforts? Journal of Corporate Finance and Accounting.

Cannon, D. and Grove, G. (2005) How does Sarbanes-Oxley affect outsourcing? Journal of Corporate Finance and Accounting.

CONVENTION PRESENTATIONS:

Grove, G. (1999) Comparing Algorithms and Clustering Data: Components of the data mining process. M.S. Thesis, Grand Valley State University, Presented at the Annual Meeting of the Classification Society of North America's Annual Meeting, Montreal, Canada, June, 2000.

Available at: www.qnetv2k.com/qnet2000thesis.htm

Greenwell, D., Li, S. Grove, G., Sanders, M. Equipment Fault Classification Designed for Manufacturing. SEMATECH Advanced Equipment Control / Advanced Process Control Symposium XIV, Snowbird, Utah, September, 2002.

Resume: Glenn Andrew Growe

COMPUTER LANGUAGES:

Visual Basic.NET
SQL
Java
C/C++
HTML

APPLICATIONS:

SPSS
SAP
MS Access
MS Excel
MS Project
MS Word
MS PowerPoint
Macromedia Dreamweaver, Auditing
Fireworks and Flash
Great Plains Accounting
Oracle
QuickBooks

CPA EXAM Sections Passed:

Business Environment and Concepts

INDUSTRY SOFTWARE TRAINING:

Kxen – Suresnes, France, September, 2000.
SAP – SAPTEC – Dallas, Texas, December, 2005

OPERATING SYSTEMS:

MS Windows
Linux/Unix

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT:

St. Peter's Parish

REFERENCES:

David Cannon, Ph.D., C.P.A.
Department of Accounting and Taxation
Grand Valley State University
Grand Rapids, Michigan 49504
(616) 331-7190
cannond@gvsu.edu

Stephen Goldberg, Ph.D., C.P.A.
Department of Accounting and Taxation
Grand Valley State University
Grand Rapids, Michigan 49504
(616) 331-7190
goldbers@gvsu.edu

Marinus DeBruine, Ph.D., C.P.A.
Department of Accounting and Taxation
Grand Valley State University
Grand Rapids, Michigan 49504
(616) 331-7407 debruinm@gvsu.edu

Lynne Hendrix, CPA
Department of Accounting,
Management, and Accounting
Hope College
Holland, MI
(616)395-7580