

Updated Online AACSB Volunteer Training is Now Available

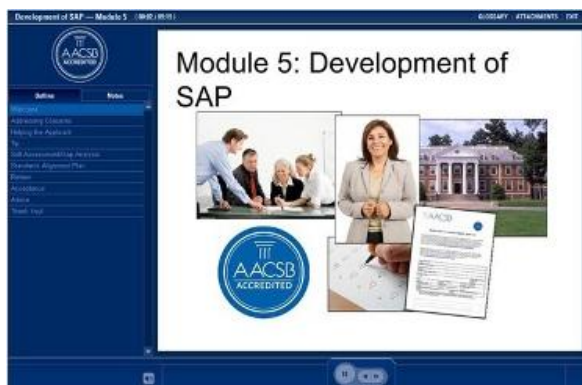

Visit AACSB's updated online Volunteer Training (formerly Peer Review Training) to learn about the new eligibility process and other changes to the accreditation process.

Whether you are new to your role as an AACSB volunteer, have participated in numerous peer reviews, have considered becoming more involved, or want to know more about AACSB Accreditation, the Volunteer Training is your resource for the most current information on the accreditation process, including:

- Information about the various accreditation phases
- Volunteer roles and responsibilities
- Step-by-step instruction on how to participate in the peer review
- Tips and advice from experienced volunteers
- Required documentation, including templates, sample letters, and tables
- Terminology

Access AACSB's Volunteer Training.

 First time users and individuals who have not accessed the training in more than a year are required to register. We suggest you register with the same user name and password you use to login to the AACSB Exchange.*

AACSB Volunteers

Many thanks to all AACSB volunteers for your commitment to assisting business schools worldwide in their pursuit of AACSB Accreditation and excellence in management education. To support you in this important role, we created the AACSB Volunteer Community on the AACSB Exchange.

Login to connect with other volunteers, access helpful resources, and stay informed on updates and news relevant to your role as an AACSB volunteer.