ACCREDITATION VOLUNTEER ELIGIBILITY

ROLE REQUIREMENTS:

Deans from AACSB accredited schools are eligible to serve on peer review teams, mentors, and committees.¹

Associate Deans, or similar positions, from AACSB accredited schools may be eligible to serve as mentors.¹,²

Accounting chairs/heads from AACSB accounting accredited schools may serve on accounting peer review teams, accounting mentors, and accounting accreditation committees.

Business members who are active in accounting business practice and have a strong knowledge of AACSB Accounting Standards may serve on accounting peer review teams and accounting accreditation committees.

TRAINING REQUIREMENTS:

Beginning in FY 2019-20, all first-time mentors and peer review team members must complete training prior to deployment.

Mentors must complete training prior to the first mentor visit (to be completed within 1 year of invitation) and new PRT members must complete training at least 90 days prior to the scheduled visit.

Any volunteer who does not comply with the training requirement by the designated due date will be removed from their assignment and become ineligible for future assignments until training is completed.

¹ Deans may continue to be assigned to peer review teams for three years after leaving their position. Deans and associate deans may continue to be assigned as mentors for five years after leaving their position. Exceptions require the approval of AACSB accreditation leadership.

² Associate Deans must submit a letter of endorsement from their dean, and possess the appropriate knowledge of and experience with the accreditation process.
