

Lori Johnson MBA, CPA, CGMA

johnsnlo@mnstate.edu

Objective: To obtain a teaching position that will allow me to share my professional experiences, my passion for learning and teaching and my broad educational background with others.

Experience: Minnesota State University Moorhead Fixed-Term Faculty
August 2010 –December 2012

Courses taught: FYE for School of Business Students
Principles of Accounting I
Principles of Accounting II
Accounting Information Systems

Minnesota State University Moorhead Adjunct Faculty
Jan 2001 – May 2010

Courses taught: FYE for School of Business Students
Principles of Accounting I
Principles of Management
Management Information Systems

NetWork Center, Inc. Chief Financial Officer
August 2001 – present

Responsible for all financial and fiscal management aspects of company operations. Provide leadership in the accounting and budgeting efforts of the company. Experienced in strategic planning and execution. Position requires extensive knowledge of finance, accounting, budgeting, and cost control principles. Position requires proficient knowledge of automated financial and accounting reporting systems. Analyze financial data and prepare financial reports, statements, and projections.

NetWork Center, Inc. General Manager
July 1999 – August 2001

Responsible for directing the overall operation of the company. Assist in obtaining and structuring new strategic business alliances. Direct and lead the company through strategic planning, organizing work flow, providing leadership and implementing control measures throughout the company. Support and direct department managers to ensure their actions align with company values and goals. Act as liaison with financial and legal representation.

NetWork Center, Inc. Controller
December 1995 – July 1999
Responsible for managing and safeguarding the financial and human assets of two corporations. Involved in strategic planning, analyzing mergers and acquisitions and developing new business ventures.

Racing Services, Inc. Controller
January 1992 – December 1995
Responsible for all financial management, financial reporting and human resource functions for several corporations. Extensive involvement in forecasts and budgets for new simulcast sites. Worked with state and regulatory agencies to assure compliance with laws and proper revenue reporting.

Charles Bailly & Company Business Consultant
September 1986 – January 1992
Assisted clients with technology needs. Selected and installed hardware and software, provided training and on-going support. Primary service objective was to provide technology consulting expertise in the application of microcomputer capabilities to solve business and organizational problems.

Great Plains Software National Training Representative
May 1985 – August 1986
Developed training material for several different Great Plains University courses. Traveled throughout the United States conducting training classes for resellers, accountants and consultants. Also conducted training classes for Great Plains Software employees.

Education: Completed the AACSB Professionally Qualified Bridge Program in June, 2013

Master of Business Administration (MBA)
Moorhead State University, May 1991
G.P.A. 4.00

Bachelor Science Degree in Accounting
Moorhead State University, May 1985
G.P.A. 4.00

References: Available upon request.