

Matt Lanfear, PhD

Restructuring and Turnaround | Startup Advisor | PhD in Finance

Profile

Matt is a finance professional with 25 years experience spanning audit and accounting, corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, restructuring and turnarounds. Matt is a restructuring and turnaround consultant, based in Switzerland, to financial institutions and firms in distressed situations. Matt also advises early stage companies and is a volunteer coach and juror at start-up competitions.

Please contact me via LinkedIn: linkedin.com/in/mlanfear

Seeking

Guest lecturer / adjunct finance faculty position(s) at European business schools.

Teaching interests

Finance, entrepreneurial finance, corporate finance, valuation, mergers and acquisitions.

Education

PhD in Finance, EDHEC Business School, France

Certificate and Diploma in Company Direction, Institute of Directors, UK

Global Executive MBA, IESE Business School, Spain

Chartered Accountant, Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, UK

Physics with Subsidiary Mathematics, University of Reading, UK

Other courses

AACSB / Chartered Association of Business Schools, UK Bridge Programme, 2017

Project Management Professional, Project Management Institute, US

Working Papers

Flight to Gold: Extreme Weather Events and Stock Returns, Lanfear, Lioui, Siebert, 2017

Are Value Stocks More Exposed to Disaster Risk? Evidence from Extreme Weather Events, Lanfear, Lioui, Siebert, 2017

https://papers.ssrn.com/sol3/cf_dev/AbsByAuth.cfm?per_id=2596095