14 NETWORKING COMMUNITY MEETINGS
Dear colleagues,

This year has reaffirmed the importance of cultivating meaningful relationships among business educators, our industry partners, and our communities. At the 2021 International Conference and Annual Meeting, we will connect for better.

- Better student outcomes
- Better, more innovative programs and curricula
- Better stakeholder engagement
- Better and more inspired leadership

We invite you to join hundreds of your peers, thought leaders, and top educators from more than 60 countries for a virtual ICAM from April 6–9, 2021. This engaging, four-day event will focus on innovative solutions and connections that will inform the future of business education and our roles within it.

We are inspired by how business schools have continued to transform themselves in this global environment. Let us learn from the insights and successes of our colleagues as we look to the future of business education.

ADAM GRANT
ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGIST, THE WHARTON SCHOOL OF BUSINESS; BESTSELLING AUTHOR; HOST: WORKLIFE, A TED ORIGINAL PODCAST

Adam Grant has been Wharton’s top-rated professor for seven straight years. As an organizational psychologist, he studies how we can find motivation and meaning, and lead more generous and creative lives. He has been recognized as one of the world’s 10 most influential management thinkers, Fortune’s 40 under 40, and Oprah’s Super Soul 100. He is the author of multiple #1 New York Times best-selling books that have sold over 2 million copies and been translated into 35 languages: Give and Take, Originals, Option B, and Power Moves.

JONATHAN HAIDT
SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGIST, STERN SCHOOL OF BUSINESS, NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

Jonathan Haidt is a social psychologist at New York University’s Stern School of Business. Haidt’s research examines the intuitive foundations of morality, and how morality varies across cultures. His goal is to help people understand each other, live and work near each other, and even learn from each other despite their moral differences. Haidt has co-founded a variety of organizations and collaborations that apply moral and social psychology toward that end, including HeterodoxAcademy.org, OpenMindPlatform.org, and EthicalSystems.org. Haidt is the author of The New York Times bestsellers The Righteous Mind: Why Good People are Divided by Politics and Religion, and The Coddling of the American Mind: How Good Intentions and Bad Ideas are Setting Up a Generation for Failure (co-authored with Greg Lukianoff). He has written more than 100 academic articles.
