Thank you for your interest in ICAM 2022!

As the world has seen much disruption in recent years, AACSB remains committed to cultivating meaningful relationships among business educators, our industry partners, and our communities. We are excited to host the 2022 International Conference and Annual Meeting (ICAM) as an immersive and interactive hybrid event with opportunities to connect with attendees in person in New Orleans.

Exhibitors will have exclusive access and unparalleled exposure to thought leaders, subject matter experts, and top business educators from around the world. To make the most of your exhibiting experience, AACSB will provide regular updates in the weeks leading up to the conference.

No other event attracts the world’s top business education professionals seeking cutting-edge programming, high-level networking, and the very best products and services. I am excited to help you build a marketing solution that fits your audience, your budget, and your strategic goals.
